A NOISE LIKE A

and it filled the entire house

PENTECOST

*Eyes closed, Peter prayed
Our Father, who art in heaven
Hallowed by Thy name,
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done -
Wind as strong as a storm on the sea
Blew all around him.
He opened his eyes and knew
The moment was here!
Together they stood side by side
As the tongue of the Spirit rested on them.*

*Joy and love,
Wisdom and knowledge
And courage filled them completely,
Overflowing and inspiring.
No longer restrained
Their faith broke free
Spilling into the streets.*

*With a loud voice Peter declared,
God has poured out His Spirit.
Believe, receive, rejoice,
For you will be saved.*

From our Interim Moderator

Dear friends,

Although I am no longer your Interim Minister, I remain your Interim Moderator, and for as long that is the case, I will be keeping in touch through the Magazine.

In particular, I hope to be able to help to keep you informed with regard to the current process of Presbytery Mission Planning which is ongoing. You will already have heard me refer to this over past months, but allow me to briefly remind you of the current situation. Indeed, on the very day I am writing this, the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland is once again discussing and debating the radical implications of the process that it began last year at this time.

In short, (and in common with most other main denominations) there is a crisis facing the Church of Scotland; a crisis of reducing membership, of insufficient finance, and of too few Ministers. Alongside this it is recognised that there are too many buildings, a number of which are not well suited for contemporary needs, some of which are in poor repair, and several of which are not in the right place to be of effective use in the future mission of the Church.

Consequently, for this past year, every Presbytery of the Church of Scotland has been undertaking two very difficult and far-reaching parallel processes. One of these is a review of all the church buildings to assess their suitability for the future mission of the church. The outcome of that review will be made known in due course.

The other process is the formulation of a Presbytery Mission Plan which looks forward to how congregations might engage in God's mission to our parishes in the future, but within the constraints of the diminishing resources we have available. Most significantly, there is about to be a very marked reduction in the number of Ministry posts, and in our Presbytery that reduction will be approximately 50%. In other words, there will be half the current number of Ministry posts available in the future compared to the present.

This is clearly going to have a major impact on all congregations, Queen's Park Govanhill amongst them.

To take forward the creation of a Presbytery Mission Plan, congregations in Glasgow have gathered into 'clusters' to work together to develop a mission plan for their area and to work out what the pattern of deployment of the smaller number of Ministers should be in order to help congregations carry through this plan.

The cluster of which Queen's Park Govanhill is a part also includes Clincarthill, Cathcart Old, and Cathcart

Trinity. As well as each Kirk Session discussing these matters, a group consisting of a small number from each of these congregations has been working with a facilitator to help identify the goals and plans for the future, and how these can best be realised with roughly only half the number of Ministry posts.

It will be a few months before anything concrete emerges by way of proposals. The final plan will not likely be agreed before the end of the year. However, the very difficult work is underway at the moment, and as it continues no 'vacant' congregation (as this congregation is) will be permitted to search for or call a Minister. It does seem almost inevitable that every congregation in the Presbytery – this one included – will need to enter into an arrangement with other local congregations in order to share Ministry posts in some way. But the how and what of this is still being explored, and that is part of the agenda of the current discussions with Clincarthill, Cathcart Old, and Cathcart Trinity.

While this is a very difficult process and the decisions to be made will involve considerable pain and sacrifice, it is also a process that is focussed on the future and on the emergence of imaginative and active Mission Plans which will help to shape the future of the church's engagement and involvement with the community around, with the aim of growing the mission of the church

And so, the planning process has been very much based around the 'Five Marks of Mission' about which I wrote a little in the Magazine in November 2021, and which formed part of the discussions at one of the Coffee and Chat mornings and which I have mentioned in Sunday worship.

Elsewhere in the magazine there is (once again) something further about these 'Five Marks of Mission', and your Kirk Session has been discussing these and how they might shape our thinking through this ongoing process.

I will attempt to keep you up to date with developments.

Your friend,

David Denniston

Hello everyone!

This month I've had the opportunity to connect with, and meet up with those involved with "The Space", a Christian, community organisation working from Belleisle Street. It was great to meet one of the workers, Ellie, and hear about the work the organisation does with the Roma community in Govanhill - though they work across the whole community, a lot of the work involves serving this particular group.

I got to see their community shop in action, where they sell donated clothes for low prices, as well as sanitary items, which gives those who come to the shop the dignity of paying for items, as opposed to receiving things for free. I was told how this provided different women connected to The Space the opportunity to develop their literacy and numeracy skills, as well as supporting customers with budgets they're on.

I also heard about how they provide an open and relaxing space with couches, a coffee station and even massage chairs to give service users a form of respite, while they can also use the space for support and help with paperwork, benefits forms, housing applications. I heard heart-breaking stories of the conditions some people were living in, and it was discovered these flats were being rented out illegally by people who didn't even own the property, and thanks to the work of The Space, people have been helped into legitimate and secure living situations.

I had the chance to share about the great work happening at Queen's Park Govanhill, and we found ways in which the work that is already happening at QPG could be of help to the service users at The Space by referring them down to our groups, such as the foodbank.

As I connect with different organisations in the community, and I share about what's on at QPG, I often hear that people didn't know about what was on/available but are now so glad to be aware so that they can let others know and refer them down to us, which is the wonderful part of working together and networking, that there is never any need for one organisation to be doing everything and we can share the role of working in, for and with the community!

I also had the delight of facilitating our recent prayer breakfast. It was great to be able to use Open Doors resources to pray for our persecuted brothers and sisters in Christ around the world, and use a community map to pray for the churches and the work being done in and around Govanhill. We were joined by members of: Clincarthill, Govanhill Free Church; St Ninian's Episcopal Church; Cathcart Old, and Cathcart Trinity. It was lovely together with others working locally, and those in our cluster, and I'm looking forward to the next prayer breakfast at Clincarthill after the Summer.

At the Lunch Stop we have recently introduced our Chatter and Natter table, and on the first Tuesday of having it in place, it provided a great opportunity for me to talk to some folk for the first time.

Chatter and Natter simply provides a space in a cafe for customers who are happy to talk to others, to sit together at a designated table. So, if you're looking for an opportunity to get involved in something that isn't costly in time or energy, and is a good excuse to get a tasty lunch and meet new people, it would be great to see you at our Chatter and Natter table!

A reminder from the last update of the very embryonic idea of doing something in Govanhill park in the summer - a picnic, games, BBQ, family day, etc. in order to have the opportunity to do something physically in Govanhill as a church. It would be great to hear from anyone who would be interested in being involved in the planning and/or implementation of such a day - but there's no pressure or assumption that those doing the planning, will also be doing the "doing" - so please get in touch if that's you!

As ever, I'm always happy and keen for a coffee and chat with anyone who wishes, to talk community work, church, your hopes, vision, etc! So always feel free to email me at: amcelhiney@churchofscotland.org.uk to meet up and chat!

N.B.

I'm on annual leave from 8th-23rd June, but available either side of those dates!

FROM THE EDITOR

For the past 2 years the magazine has been published every month without a break as part of our response to the pandemic and associated limitations on our social and congregational lives. Now that most of these restrictions have been removed it seems appropriate to resume the practice of giving the loyal band of regular contributors a well-earned summer break. So the next edition of the magazine will be for September 2022.

ML

My dear friends,

Surprised by God! Have you ever had this experience? Has it been true for you? It certainly has been for me! This reminds me of the words of an old well known hymn penned by William Cowper (1731- 1800) that begins by saying (in verse 1), ‘God moves in a mysterious way, His wonders to perform Him..... ‘ then goes on (in verse 2) to say, ‘Deep in unfathomable mines of never-failing skill, He treasures up His bright designs, and works His sovereign will’. (MP 193)

Reflecting back in memory to January 2014 to January 2015 when I was your Locum Minister, it never ever crossed my mind that when I left that I would return to Queen’s Park Govanhill Parish Church to serve you again! So much has happened over the past seven years, it came as a wonderful surprise when I was asked if I would like again to be part of the Church family, all be it for three months! Yes, how delighted and thrilled I was to accept the invitation to return and serve you for this short time. Truly for me, I am able to fully say yes, God absolutely does move in ways that are mysterious and surprises us. It is so good to meet some previous friends again and also now to make a lot of new ones.

Yes, God weaves the tapestry of our lives in ways that we do not understand, yet through it all, His desire is to bless us. Each day and year of our personal and church life, His promise is that He is forever faithful, always working in and through us seeking our benefit and blessing.

Friends whatever the future holds, may we never lose sight of Who holds the future! It is He Who promises through His prophet Jeremiah (29:11), that ‘He alone knows the plans He has for you, plans to bring prosperity and not disaster, plans to bring about the future we hope for’. Let’s be encouraged, God loves us and is FOR us!!!!

Friends, I look forward over the next couple of months to journeying with you, in life and faith, as your Locum Minister and pray that it will be enriching and glorifying to God.

Your Locum Minister and friend...

Morris

ALASTAIR MOSS

On 2nd May, our fellow member, friend, and senior elder Alastair Moss, died, aged 92 years, and we had the opportunity to give thanks for his life, celebrate the man he was, and pay tribute to his Christian service at the funeral on 13th May, and at our Sunday worship on 15th May.

We gratefully acknowledge the enormous contribution that Alastair Moss made to the congregation of Queens Park Govanhill, and – before that – the congregations of Queens Park West, Strathbungo Queens Park and Queens Park.

Alastair sang in the choir until very recently (he was a faithful choir member for 74 years) and while his voice was not latterly what it had been, many will remember his exceptionally fine tenor voice contributing so fully and memorably to the choir's anthems in days past, and not least in that great anthem which was such a favourite, and which featured his tenor voice 'Seek ye the Lord'.

As a Boys' Brigade officer and Captain of the 123rd Glasgow he had a very significant influence on the lives of many, and since his death a significant number have commented on what an influence for good Alastair was in their lives.

In the Sunday School Alastair served for a time as Superintendent, and he gave so much as a faithful elder, serving in so many different ways – including a long time as Clerk to the Congregational Board – caring so loyally for his folks, and ending up as the congregation's senior elder.

And even when active, formal duties were no longer within his easy capabilities, still he warmly welcomed any and all to the Sunday services in our congregation, and wrote letters of encouragement and comfort to so many folks.

Alastair's strong and steady Christian faith shaped his life and made him who he was. We celebrate that faith, pay tribute to his Christian character, and give thanks for his huge contribution in service to this congregation. Alastair Moss was a man whose life was lived in Christ, and a man in and through whom the light of Christ shone

As we give thanks for him, so we will remember his family in our prayers as they remember their father, father-in-law, grandfather and great grandfather.

NANCY MILLER

Agnes (Nancy) Miller, formerly of 25 Queen Square has died on 13th May.

Her funeral will be on 15th June.

WAY IN....2 Samuel 1-9

These chapters capture the tectonic plates of Israel and Judah shifting, seen in the power struggle between the “house of Saul” and “the house of David”. In just 9 chapters, there are battles, grief and mourning, dishonour and unforgiveness, flawed human kings, judgement and retribution, the holiness of God and unexpected kindness lavished on a nobody.

Some wonderful qualities in King David are seen but we also know he is a deeply flawed, sinful man. Even in his best moments, David is only the faintest whisper of the greater king to come - Jesus who does not seek to unify a nation but instead has won a people for God from every nation on the earth.

HOW OTHER CHRISTIANS HAVE TO LIVE

NIGERIA

Her name was Deborah Emmanuel – a second-year Christian student of Home Economics at the Shehu Shagari College of Education in Sokoto state, Nigeria. She should have been safe from harassment and violence at an academic institution. But she wasn't.

On 12 May Ms Emmanuel was brutally beaten and stoned to death by a predominantly male mob who proceeded to immolate her in a pile of tyres whilst chanting “Allahu Akbar”. She was buried just two days later.

Ms Emmanuel was killed after she was falsely accused of blaspheming the Prophet Mohammed in a WhatsApp group chat in which she reportedly expressed exasperation at members posting religious articles and asked them to focus on issues relevant to course work, as it was a departmental group.

Unconfirmed reports, however, indicate that Ms Emmanuel had rejected the advances of a Muslim student, who later made the allegation against her. Some of these reports allege he is the same person who appeared in widely circulated video footage of Ms Emmanuel's murder, brandishing a box of matches whilst boasting about the killing being “good and justified.”

Cases such as these below offer little hope that the two students who have thus far been arrested for their involvement in Ms Emmanuel's death will be held accountable.

16 individuals arrested in connection with the murder of 30-year-old teacher Christianah Oluwatoyin Oluwasesin in Bauchi state were eventually released without charge. Mrs Oluwasesin, a mother of two, was stoned, stripped, beaten, stabbed to death and burned beyond recognition at Gandu Government Day Secondary School by a mob consisting of students, townsfolk and local thugs after being falsely accused of blasphemy by a student whom she caught cheating during an exam.

Mrs Bridget Agbahime, 74, a market trader and the wife of a retired Deeper Life Church leader, was beaten to death by a mob in Kofar Wambai market in the Kano state capital following a false accusation of blasphemy. The five men arrested in connection with her murder, including the one whose falsehood incited her murder, were released unconditionally five months after being arrested.

Mrs Eunice Elisha Olawale, 42, a deaconess and assistant pastor with the Redeemed Christian Church of God (RCCG) in a satellite town of the national capital, Abuja, who left her home in the morning for street evangelism, was murdered as she passed by a mosque. Her throat was slit, she was stabbed in the stomach, and her bible was found near her body. Six men were arrested in connection with her murder, including a Muslim cleric who admitted he had ordered some young men to chase Mrs Olawale away, but denied asking them to kill her. All six were released despite this admission, and amidst claims by the Abuja Police Commissioner that there was no prima facie evidence linking them to the murder.

CRECHE

We are delighted that Creche facilities are available again on a Sunday morning and are ready to welcome any little ones to the Crèche room during the morning services.

Thanks to those taking duty and this is the rota for 3 months.

Club 170

Last month (for obvious reasons) we held our first full team meeting for some time. We continued the tradition of enjoying Club 170 fayre, prior to the meeting – soup, roll and sausage, tea/coffee and especially for Nancy – Tunnock wafers! It was great to welcome back both Nancy and Josie.

The meeting was a good opportunity to share thoughts and future plans. We decided to have a meal for our visitors on Sunday 29th May to mark the 20th anniversary of the Club.

We plan to have a Club 170 meal inviting previous team members over the last 20 years along with members of the congregation. This is scheduled for Sunday 19th June following the morning service to which you are warmly invited.

We opened the doors in faith in 2002 and still do so today. We hope to see and serve you on 19^h June

The team were delighted to welcome back Leslie & Gayle Slaven all the way from Dunoon!!

Alastair Moss

We would like to thank all the members at Queen's Park Govanhill for all the wonderful messages, cards, prayers and flowers we received following the passing of our Dad. They brought great comfort to us at this very difficult time. We were also quite overwhelmed with the incredible turnout at the funeral and afterwards. It was lovely to see so many familiar faces and have the opportunity to share some happy stories and memories of our Dad with you all. It is very humbling to know how highly respected our Dad was within his Church family and that he will be long remembered there.

Our thanks and prayers go to you all

With much love Edith, Kenneth, Alan, Aileen and families.

A huge "thank you" to everyone who helped me celebrate my special birthday weekend. The cards. Gifts, flowers, cakes and surprises were all much appreciated and saying "thank you" doesn't really seem enough.
